WELLNESS IN THE WORKPLACE (DRILLING FOR OPTIMISM)

– Tapping into Our Most Valuable Natural Resource –

Even amid a worldwide pandemic, opportunities don't disappear; they simply manifest in new and different ways. Optimism is the key to being able to recognize these opportunities when they arise. This program examines the real power of optimism as a currency that creates storm-weathering attitudes and allows the flexibility to identify alternate routes to success – even in this challenging climate.

Only the optimistic survive, and Steve delivers the Common Sense Success Strategies necessary for tapping into the positive reserves within each of us. Prepare to dig deep and learn why Steve is known affectionately as the "Attitude Adjuster."

YOUR ATTENDEES WILL LEARN HOW TO...

- SHIFT their focus and way of thinking to transform these challenging times into opportunities.
- Embrace Change while enjoying the process.
- Start each day with an unstoppable attitude to succeed regardless of their circumstances.
- Unleash the power of their "Humor Beings" throughout the day.
- Make a significant difference for your associates, customers and family.

DRILLING FOR OPTIMISM! is available as a keynote, half-day or virtual program and can be customized to your audience, event theme and target outcome. Give your group the strategies they need to succeed in business and life—delivered in an entertaining, powerful and memorable way. Steve is the speaker to get your corporate or association event energized and OPTIMISTIC!

WHAT CLIENTS SAY

"Steve Rizzo delivered what he promised when we hired him, i.e., to be the best keynote speaker we've ever had. Your presentation and subsequent coaching were met with rave reviews by our team. Your message was refreshing, powerful and potentially life-altering while at the same time keeping everyone laughing. This message could not have come at a better time as we navigate our personal and professional lives within the realities of a global pandemic. Luckily, thanks to you, we are armed with some new tools and strategies and continue to encourage our team to motivate themselves through humor, positivity and grit. Steve, thank you for making a difference!"
