Whether you need to motivate your sales and service team, improve employee morale, instill strong leadership skills, deal with stress or embrace change, Steve Rizzo's Common Sense Success Strategies will take your audience to the next level. As one of his clients said, "Never has my group learned so much and laughed so hard in one sitting!"

Once upon a time, STEVE RIZZO was told by a guidance counselor that he didn't have the intelligence for college. A few years later, he was saddled with the dubious high school honor of being voted "Least Likely to Succeed."

Steve went on to surprise everyone, including himself, by excelling with honors at the university and post-graduate levels. Eventually, he even taught English at his old high school and was a counselor for students with behavioral problems, proving once and for all that guidance counselors are not fortune-tellers.

Steve would go on to stellar success as a national headline comedian and starred in his very own Showtime comedy special, earning him honors as a Showtime Comedy All-Star.

But the surprises didn't stop there.

At the pinnacle his stand-up career, Steve walked away from comedy to pursue his true purpose and passion—to show people how to shift their focus and way of thinking, to discover more joy and enthusiasm, increased productivity and greater levels of success.

Steve offers more than the usual nuts and bolts on how to succeed. He stresses the importance of enjoying yourself during the process of achieving your goals, and building a solid foundation to stand on when all else fails, because he absolutely knows that no matter what circumstances we find ourselves in, attitude is everything.

When Steve Rizzo shares his blueprint for success with Fortune 500 companies and associations across the globe, he delivers a powerful message for living an extraordinary life, because he lives the Common Sense Success Strategies that have made him a member of prestigious Speakers Hall of Fame—an honor bestowed on fewer than 250 speakers worldwide since 1977.

Steve is the author of the bestselling books Conversations With Bob, Motivate THIS! and Get Your SHIFT Together. He is a regular contributor for Success magazine and often called upon as the go-to guy on the topic of personal and professional development for many network, cable and radio media outlets.

"You delivered a timeless message and knocked it out of the park! Your success strategies and humor resonated with the young, old and in between!" – AMERICAN EXPRESS
